

Common Human Resource Information Standards

Member Basic Allowance for Subsistence Type Amount

Member Basic Allowance for Subsistence Type Amount is the dollar amount paid to a DoD Military Service member for a specific type of Basic Allowance for Subsistence (BAS).

Permitted Values

NA

Structural Business Rules

A DoD Military Service member who is a member of the National Guard or Reserve must be paid a prorated amount for any period of active service less than one month.

A dollar amount must have at least one numeric character followed by a decimal point and two numeric characters, or when the amount is less than one, a decimal point followed by two numeric characters.

Member Basic Allowance for Subsistence Type must have an associated Member Basic Allowance for Subsistence Start Date and Member Basic Allowance for Subsistence Type Amount.

Member Basic Allowance for Subsistence Type Amount must have an associated Member Basic Allowance for Subsistence Stop Date when eligibility for basic allowance for subsistence ends.

Member Basic Allowance for Subsistence Type Amount must have an associated Member Basic Allowance for Subsistence Type Start Date.

Reference Documents

DoD 7000.14-R, Vol. 7A, Ch. 25, Para. 250103
37 USC 402 (b)

PII	Owner	Steward
No	OSD P&R	OSD P&R IM